

TABLE NUMBER.....

TIE BREAKER

Transfer each letter in a numbered cell to the bottom grid. Insert one word, of any length, in each row (the word must include the letter in the numbered cell) to make up a meaningful sentence or sentences reading from top to bottom.

																			17
																			13
																			28
																			26
																			6
																			7
																			12
																			23
																			21
																			29
																			22
																			27
																			9
																			4
																			5
																			20
																			11
																			1
																			16
																			15
																			14
																			24
																			8
																			18
																			30
																			3
																			19
																			25
																			10
																			2
																			31		